

Sheetrock on the Interior Walls

Sheet rock panels being installed on the interior walls of the new Fellowship Center. Stilts make it easy to reach to the top of the panels.

Nothing changes the interior appearance faster than the additional of sheet rock to the interior partitions. Now the finished room size and shape is readily apparent.

