

Interior Framing

Partitions to divide the new building into various rooms and facilities is now complete. Can you identify any of these locations?

Above left - view from fellowship hall toward the vestibule and kitchen. Above right - view from the outside entrance into the vestibule; fellowship hall on right, kitchen on left. In both photos above, the storage loft is visible above.

Above left - view from inside the parlor classroom, looking toward the vestibule and fellowship hall. The stairs clearly visible in the center of the photo lead to the upper storage loft. Above right - view from inside the parlor classroom looking toward the kitchen. Plumbing, electrical conduit, and sprinkler pipe is visible in the ceiling.

