

Demolition Begins

Shortly after 7:30 AM, the excavator operator lifted his grapple up over the fellowship hall roof, plunged it down through the roof, then pulled it out through the side wall - and the demolition process was underway (three photos above and right).

The roof was systematically shattered, the debris lifted out and placed in a container. When the roof debris was cleared, the surrounding walls were knocked down and the concrete debris piled for recycling.

