

Preparing the Foundations

Batter Boards and string used to lay out the location and elevation of the concrete foundation (two photos above).

The site as seen across the Fellowship Hall drive-through after grading (above left).

Digging trenches for the foundation concrete, by backhoe and by hand (two photos at bottom).

