

Roof Trusses Go On Fellowship Hall

A main roof truss for the fellowship center is swung into place, then fastened securely by workers high up in the roofing. Roof truss installation began on July 17 and was essentially complete (including plywood sheathing) by July 25.

